

Stewardship Author & Storyteller, Lynn Miller

Friday evening, November 20, 7:00 p.m.

"Do you remember when?"

An evening of storytelling, snacks, and sharing about stewardship practices in the fellowship hall with Lynn Miller. For all ages high school and up. Childcare provided.

Saturday morning, November 21, 9:00 a.m.

"Who took my 'funeral' cheese?"

Persons of or near retirement age are invited to gather for coffee, sweet rolls, fruit and naturally, "funeral" cheese in the fellowship hall. Lynn will be sharing and inviting questions as well.

Saturday evening, November 21, 6:00 p.m.

"Fighting Consumerism/Finding Contentment"

Young adults (ages 23-30) are invited to an evening of fine dining, followed by a presentation by Lynn. RSVP to Kim Funk in the church office by Tuesday. Childcare provided.

Sunday morning, November 22

9:30 a.m.

"Start Your Engines"

Worship service including a message from Lynn.

10:45 a.m.

"Getting Off on the Right Foot"

High school youth will hear Lynn during the Sunday school hour.

Noon

Potluck and Visiting.

All are invited to the potluck and informal visiting with Lynn Miller.

7:00 p.m.

"Jesus Said What?" Lynn will focus on Jesus' challenging teachings about money. There will be a free will offering received for our friends at the Potter House Mennonite Church, to help with replacing some sound equipment that was recently stolen. The evening meeting is open to other churches. please sign up on the bulletin board if you can bring cookies for a social hour following.

Stewardship